CENTAURO

The font Centauro is taken from the Specimen Book of the Fundición Tipográfica José Iranzo. This typefoundry operated in Madrid and Barcelona. José Iranzo published several typefaces in the 1940s, such as the heavy script font Pulido, the commercial modern face Publicidad (1930), Centauro and Supertipo Veloz (1942). Centauro is a massive, but at the same time quite funny font for display purposes. The original was all caps; we added lower case letters, numerals and lots of diacritics. OpenType features: Kerning, ligatures.
